

St. Philip's Weekly Newsletter

January 30, 2021

Hello friends,

This week, an abbreviated newsletter with just the most important information. The quiz, history and news will return next week. But we definitely want to keep up with the prayer concerns and notes of praise in the parish. So here goes ---

- Jeanne Svendson requests your prayers for her niece and nephew, who have tested positive for Covid recently
- Give thanks to God that Jack Notzen's recent test results came back with excellent results!
- Give thanks for the health improvement of Karen Porzak.
- Please pray for all those who mourn the passing of Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu.
- Pray for freedom, justice, and peace in our own land and in Sudan, South Sudan, Ukraine, Russia, Myanmar, Yemen and Ethiopia.
- Give thanks for a trio of wonderful Christmas services at church. We were so blessed by the wonderful music, beautiful decorations and flowers and the presence of Jesus in our worship.
- Give thanks for the safe return of the Peterson family to their winter home in Florida. And pray for all those parishioners who may be traveling this week - especially the Duers, who are headed to Colorado.

- And as always – we persist in prayer for all those with ongoing health (and other) concerns. These include Linda Purcell; Ann Fischer; Carrol Hercules; Jill Hill; Bill Peterson; Roberta Butler; Deacon Dan Hughes; Ken and Janie Jenssen; Kim McDonald; Andreas Kistner; The Bergman family; Steve Francois; Lian Thian; Scott Garske; Christina Guzman; Juan and Eloisa Musante; Tracy Grummer; Joe and Toni Saladino; Peggy and Don; Marge; Levi Tsu and his family; Molly and her parents - Laura and David; Chris Trotti; and Bruce Fichte.

That's it for this week, friends. More to come next week. In the meantime, God loves you and so do I. You have my deepest wishes for a safe, healthy and Christ-filled 2022.

Your friend,

Fr. Jim
